GRANITE ENTERS INTO A $300 MILLION COMMITTED SEVEN-YEAR UNSECURED TERM LOAN

December 12, 2018, Toronto, Ontario, Canada — Granite Real Estate Investment Trust (“Granite”) (TSX: GRT.UN; NYSE: GRP.U) announced today that it has entered into a $300 million committed seven-year senior unsecured non-revolving term facility (the “Term Loan”). Through a cross currency interest rate swap, Granite has exchanged the principal and interest payments from the Term Loan for euro denominated payments at an all-in 2.20% fixed interest rate. Granite intends to use the net proceeds from the Term Loan for general corporate purposes, including to fund development and property acquisitions.

Ilias Konstantopoulos, Granite’s CFO commented that “We are pleased to have sourced flexible and competitive debt capital from a leading Canadian financial institution that will further enable the execution of our strategy. Pro forma the Term Loan, Granite’s interest-bearing debt remains entirely unsecured, provides a natural and partial hedge to our European asset base and cash flows, has a weighted average cost of 2.42%, a weighted average term to maturity of 5.0 years and is entirely at a fixed rate of interest.”

ABOUT GRANITE

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain statements that, to the extent they are not recitations of historical fact, constitute “forward-looking statements” or “forward-looking information” within the meaning of applicable securities legislation, including the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and applicable Canadian securities legislation. Forward-looking statements and forward-looking information may include, among others, statements regarding the impact of the Term Loan, including Granite’s ability to execute on its strategy and the intended use of the proceeds and Granite’s future plans, goals, strategies, intentions, beliefs, estimates, costs, objectives, economic performance, expectations, or foresight or the assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Words such as “may”, “would”, “could”, “will”, “likely”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “intend”, “plan”, “forecast”, “project”, “estimate”, “seek” and similar expressions are used to identify forward-looking statements and forward-looking information.

Forward-looking statements and forward-looking information should not be read as guarantees of the expected impact of the Term Loan or its intended use of proceeds as described herein or other events, performance or results and will not necessarily be accurate indications of whether or the times at or by which such future events or performance will be achieved. Undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. Forward-looking statements and forward-looking information are based on information available at the time and/or management’s good faith assumptions and analyses made in light of its perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors management believes are appropriate in the circumstances, and are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other unpredictable factors, many of which are beyond Granite’s control, that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from such forward-looking statements and forward-looking information. Important factors that could cause such differences include, but are not limited to, the risks set forth in the annual information form of Granite REIT and Granite REIT Inc. dated March 1, 2018 (the “Annual Information Form”). The “Risk Factors” section of the Annual Information Form also contains information about the material factors or assumptions underlying such forward-looking statements and forward-looking information. Forward-looking statements and forward-looking information speak only as of the date the statements and information were made and unless otherwise required by applicable securities laws, Granite expressly disclaims any intention and undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements or forward-looking information contained in this press release to reflect subsequent information, events or circumstances or otherwise.
